Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

A: claims 1-9, 18-28, 37-40 and 44-46 drawn to an array substrate and a method of fabricating wherein one of the plurality of common electrode patterns and one of the plurality of pixel electrode patterns form concentric rings of pixel and common electrode patterns that are within an open region of another one of the plurality of common electrode patterns.

B: claims 10-17, 41 and 42 drawn to an array substrate and a method of fabricating wherein one of the plurality of common electrode patterns has two symmetric half-ring shaped portions and one of the plurality of pixel electrode patterns has two symmetric half-ring shaped portions that are concentrically arranged within an open region of another one of the plurality of common electrode patterns.

C: claims 29-36 and 43 drawn to an array substrate and a method of fabricating wherein the first common electrode pattern has corner portions and defines an open region that has a substantially rectangular shape, and the second common electrode pattern has a spiral shape and the second pixel electrode pattern has a spiral shape.

D: claims 47-58 drawn to an array substrate and a method of fabricating wherein the innermost pixel electrode pattern is shaped like a rod and disposed within an area of the pixel connecting line, wherein the pixel electrode overlaps portions of the pixel connecting line and directly contacts the pixel connecting line, wherein other pixel electrode patterns are patterned to have semicircular shapes, and wherein the semiconductor line extends underneath the source and drain electrodes, the pixel connection line and the capacitor electrode, wherein an innermost portion of the plurality of common electrode patterns is substantially circular band shaped, and wherein the aperture area is circular band shaped.

The species are independent or distinct because they are mutually exclusive.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.
MPEP § 809.02(a).

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2871

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
